

SAVE THE DATE

8/18/17

The Ruby Anniversary Exhibition

We're celebrating the Crary Art Gallery's forty years as a dynamic regional cultural asset with an exhibition featuring selected works from the art collection of C.J. and Gene Walker Crary, including major works never before exhibited publicly.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Opening Reception	Fri., Aug. 18	6 - 9 PM
Community Open House	Sun., Aug. 20	11 - 2 PM
Artisan Pop-Up Marketplace	Sat., Aug. 26	12 - 6 PM
Exhibit ends	Sat., Sep. 16	12 - 6 PM

For details on these events and the exhibition, visit

craryartgallery.org

SAVE THE DATE 8/18/17

JOIN THE CELEBRATION

The Crary Art Gallery turns 40!

Some highlights of the Ruby Anniversary Exhibition are paintings and prints by prominent 20th century artists and photographers, as well as Japanese prints, Mr. C.J. Crary's own black-and-white photographs from far-away lands, and Mrs. Gene Crary's figurative, still life, and landscape oil and watercolor paintings.

OPENING RECEPTION

Friday,
August 18
6 to 9 PM

At 7 PM, there will be a brief program with presentations by elected officials and dignitaries. Representatives from the Warren County Historical Society, the Crary Home, and the Crary Art Gallery will address the legacy of the Crarys, the history of the gallery, the loan of the Marion Sanford sculptures and the role of the gallery moving forward. Entertainment by harpist, Ellen Paquette.

Sunday, August 20 from 11 AM to 2 PM

Community Open House with a special presentation of Gustave Doré engraved wood printing blocks that were used to create the famous 1866 "Doré Bible". Entertainment by The Methodist Madrigals, The Warren Philharmonic Quintet and female a capella quartet, Chatauqua Belles.

Saturday, August 26 from 12 to 6 PM Pop-Up Marketplace showcasing Pennsylvania Wilds Artisans and other talented artists selling hand-made products in a fair-style setting on the beautiful grounds surrounding the Crary Art Gallery. Food and beverage vendors. Entertainment by alternative acoustic folk group, Egypt Hollow at 3.

For details on these events and the exhibition, visit

craryartgallery.org